

Visit Vienna and join the EAPM Conference 2020!

Join us at EAPM conference from June 24th to 27th, 2020 and meet the Nobel Laureate Eric Kandel and other experts. The call for abstracts for the scientific conference of the European Association of Psychosomatic Medicine in Vienna, Austria is open! The conference theme is "New challenges – New approaches?". The venue will be the Hofburg, the former imperial palace right in the city center of Vienna.

Abstract Submission

Eric R. Kandel, Nobel Laureate & University Professor at Columbia University in New York, USA

'Memory and Age-Related Memory Loss' will be Dr. Kandel's highlighted keynote presentation. Don't miss this opening talk and the networking ceremony Wednesday night.

The Conference

In times of increasing health care costs, aging population, rising prevalence of mental disorders, such as internet addiction or mental disorders due to migration, there are several challenges we have to focus on. Discuss these topics and possible approaches with our experts!

Among others, Nobel Laureate Eric Kandel will talk about “Memory and Age-Related Memory Loss”, other keynotes focus on “Culture-sensitive psychotraumatology and refugee mental health” or “Sleep disorders and mental health”. Listen to these and many other talks at the EAPM 2020!

Submit your abstract

The EAPM conference 2020 is a great opportunity to visit Vienna, one of the most livable cities of the world! We have just opened the abstract submission (deadline January 31st, 2020), so don't miss your chance to submit your scientific abstract.

Looking forward to seeing you in Vienna!

Christoph Pieh
Conference President

Abstract Submission

Enjoy Vienna and the Hofburg at EAPM 2020!

More information

www.eapm2020.com

Copyright © 2019 Donau-Universität Krems
Department für Psychotherapie und Biopsychosoziale Gesundheit
Dr.-Karl-Dorrek-Straße 30
3500 Krems, Austria

Fotocredits: Wien Tourismus